

If it ain't broke don't fix it. Wisconsin's no-call law is fine the way it is, leave it alone! We thought the federal government wants to stay out of state's affairs or is that only for some things like gay marriage for instance.